The Young People's society of Christian Endeavor of the Baptist church will hold its regular business meeting Thursday evening of this week, at the close of the prayer meeting. Officers and committee are requested to make their report in writing to the society.

An indignant crowd of boys and young men, who had been "taken in" by a couple of fakers who were supposed to be selling fountain pens, in the open space in front of Johnson's livery stable last night, drove the two vendors of pens which wouldn't write, out of their place of business and up Main street with cries of "Fake, fake, 'Roosevelt' and the like. The men left town this morning, evidently thinking that they would be better off in some town besides Barre.

This is the way Stankard, the Inter-city player, was received in Springfield, Mass., Stankard, the new man "at short, was the object of considerable gazing. The ex-collegian's arm seemed a bit stiff, and he was rather lucky in escaping with but one misplay. His throwing kept Crook busy stretching out to take the ball on the mound. Stankard's weak shooting across the diamond is accounted for by the fact that he has been playing in only three games this season, all a week apart. He secured one of the six swats, lining the ball out over second base his first time on deck."

WILLIAMSTOWN.

George Martin has just lost his fine chestnut work horse. Frank Bacon also lost one Saturday but bought another one at Barre.

Miss Mary Byrd, the Smith college professor who resigned her position because she had scruples against the institution's accepting Rockefeller's and Carnegie's money on the ground that it is "tainted", is an own cousin of Charles F. Stevens of Highland avenue. Miss Byrd visited at Mr. Stevens' home some years ago. Her dislike for "tainted" money is perhaps partially due to her early teaching as her father entertained the same scruples. The place which she assigned was the professorship of astronomy, in which branch of science Miss Byrd has gained considerable prominence.

Excursion to Missisquoi Park.

The first grand excursion and picnic of the season will be to Missisquoi Park, Highgate Springs, Friday, June 1st. There will be base ball games and other sports at the Park that day, and also good boating, fishing and bathing. Refreshments of all kinds served at the same scruples. The place which she assigned was the professorship of astronomy, in which branch of science Miss Byrd has gained considerable prominence.

Good Investment

Purchase a pair of "Dorothy Dodd" Shoes and we are certain you will consider it one of the very best investments for your comfort that you ever made.

They will give you a freedom of movement you have never before enjoyed, they will snug up under the arch of your foot so that the vacant feeling at that point is entirely done away with, they will give the toes free expansion and give to the entire foot a bracing, restful sensation.

They will, in fact, fit your foot as perfectly the first day as many others do after weeks of painful breaking in.

FARMERS,

None know as well as you the necessity of change of Seed for securing the LARGEST crops of BEST Potatoes. Your own crops were so meager last year that we were lately compelled to order a carload (500 bushels) from Michigan's matchless crop. They have come and they are beauties—the mealy Round White and the Long White from Michigan's matchless soil. The quality of these is not excelled and you would tire your best horse looking for their equal for your Seed this year. It will pay you to sell what you have reserved for Seed and buy these. Price $2.50 per bag. The present shortage will help make them go exceptionally fast. Call, phone or drop postal.
